About the Producer & Director:

Pranam Janney (Producer/Actor)

Pranam Janney is a professional actor. His experience ranges from theatre to feature films. As an actor, he struggled to find work after moving to Adelaide, Australia and thus decided to make his own films. "For Her" is his first attempt at being a producer. For his first short film he wanted to narrate a simple story involving a character's emotional journey, eventually facing up to a confronting reality. Being in front of the camera, he has picked up nuances of film making over time. He has put those to the test with his first production. The entire crew has done a wonderful job in this production and he is grateful for it. "For Her" is his labour of love as a producer and an actor. His next project will be finalized shortly and pre-production will begin thereafter.

Magali Rage (Director)

Magali Rage is a French filmmaker living in Adelaide, Australia. She has a broad experience in film making and has previously worked as VFX artist on major Hollywood productions such as Harry Potter, Alien Versus Predator and Cats and Dogs and for many well known production houses such as The Moving Picture Company, Cinesite and Aardman studios. Before moving to Adelaide, she was teaching Computer Graphics course at the National Film School (NFS), London. She has a strong interest in ceramic sculptures and plays tenor sax. She forayed in independent filmmaking driven by the dream of directing a feature length movie about the extraordinary story of her family, inspired by personal experiences. Magali has directed a few short films, winning awards in UK such as Hemel Hampstead Movie Makers First prize for Snared (drama, 2009) and What Happened in El Paso (comedy, 2010), Brian Harris award for 8 Legs of Latex (comedy, 2010) and 4x4 Film Festival award for Tightrope (drama, 2011).

"For Her" is a drama about the challenge that most people have to face in their life time. We meet the protagonist at the turning point of his relationship with the woman he loves most.
